Catholicity

Our ethos is one, which nurtures education through the recognition and celebration of all children's experiences and achievements, whatever the context. Each child is an individual and deserves to be respected and valued as such. Every child is unique and made in the likeness of God. Every child should succeed at their own level and be praised for this success.

1. Aims and objectives

Our special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) policy aims to:

- Make sure our school fully implements national legislation and guidance regarding pupils with SEND
- Set out how our school will:
 - Support and make provision for pupils with special educational needs and disabilities, offering a broad and balanced curriculum
 - Provide pupils with SEND access to all aspects of school life so they can engage in the activities of the school alongside pupils who do not have SEND
 - Help pupils with SEND fulfil their aspirations and achieve their best
 - Help pupils with SEND become confident individuals living fulfilling lives
 - Communicate with pupils with SEND and their parents or carers and involve them in discussions and decisions about support and provision for the pupil
- Explain the roles and responsibilities of everyone involved in providing for pupils with SEND
- Communicate with, and involve, pupils with SEND and their parents or carers in discussions and decisions about support and provision for the pupil
- Make sure the SEND policy is understood and implemented consistently by all staff

2. Vision and values

St Joseph's Catholic Primary school provides all pupils will access to a broad and balanced curriculum, and values the contribution that every child and young person can make. We are fully inclusive and welcome the diversity of culture, religion and intellectual style. We are committed to raise the achievement, remove barriers to learning and increase physical and curricular access for all, ensuring that all pupils have the chance to thrive. All children and young people with SEND are valued, respected and equal members of the school. As such, provision for pupils with SEND is a matter for the school as a whole. Above all, all teachers are teachers of pupils with SEND. The governing body, head teacher, SENCo and all other members of staff have important responsibilities.

3. Legislation and guidance

St Joseph's Catholic Primary School policy is based on the statutory Special Educational Needs and Disability \(SEND\) Code of Practice and the following legislation:

- Part 3 of the Children and Families Act 2014, which sets out schools' responsibilities for pupils with SEND
 - The Special Educational Needs and Disability Regulations 2014, which set out local authorities' and schools' responsibilities for education, health and care (EHC) plans, SEN co-ordinators (SENCOs) and the special educational needs (SEN) information report
 - The Equality Act 2010 (section 20), which sets out the school's duties to make reasonable adjustments for pupils with disabilities
 - The Public Sector Equality Duty (section 149 of the Equality Act 2010), which set out the school's responsibilities to eliminate discrimination, harassment and victimisation; and advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic (which includes having a disability) and those who don't share it
 - The Governance Handbook, which sets out governors' responsibilities for pupils with SEND

- The School Admissions Code, which sets out the school's obligation to admit all pupils whose education, health and care (EHC) plan names the school, and its duty not to disadvantage unfairly children with a disability or with special educational needs

4. Inclusion and equal opportunities

At St Joseph's, we strive to create an inclusive teaching environment that offers all pupils, no matter their needs and abilities, a broad, balanced and challenging curriculum. We are committed to offering all pupils the chance to thrive and fulfil their aspirations.

We will achieve this by making reasonable adjustments to teaching, the curriculum and the school environment to make sure that pupils with SEND are included in all aspects of school life.

5. Definitions

5.1 Special educational needs

A pupil has SEN if they have a learning difficulty or disability that requires special educational provision to be made for them.

They have a learning difficulty or disability if they have:

- A significantly greater difficulty in learning than most others of the same age, or
- A disability which prevents or hinders them from making use of facilities of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in mainstream schools

Special educational provision is educational or training provision that is additional to, or different from, that made generally for other children or young people of the same age by mainstream schools.

5.2 Disability

Pupils are considered to have a disability if they have a physical or mental impairment that has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on their ability to do normal daily activities.

The school will make reasonable adjustments for pupils with disabilities, so that they are not at a substantial disadvantage compared with their peers.

5.3 The 4 areas of need

The needs of pupils with SEND are grouped into 4 broad areas. Pupils can have needs that cut across more than 1 area, and their needs may change over time.

Interventions will be selected that are appropriate for the pupil's particular area(s) of need, at the relevant time.

AREA OF NEED
Communication and interaction	Pupils with needs in this area have difficulty communicating with others. They may have difficulty understanding what is being said to them, have trouble expressing themselves, or do not understand or use the social rules of communication. Pupils who are on the autism spectrum often have needs that fall in this category.

AREA OF NEED
Cognition and learning	Pupils with learning difficulties usually learn at a slower pace than their peers. A wide range of needs are grouped in this area, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Specific learning difficulties, which impact 1 or more specific aspects of learning, such as: dyslexia, dyscalculia and dyspraxia • Moderate learning difficulties • Severe learning difficulties • Profound and multiple learning difficulties, which is where pupils are likely to have severe and complex learning difficulties as well as a physical disability or sensory impairment
Social, emotional and mental health	These needs may reflect a wide range of underlying difficulties or disorders. Pupils may have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mental health difficulties such as anxiety, depression or an eating disorder • Attention deficit disorder, attention deficit hyperactive disorder or attachment disorder • Suffered adverse childhood experiences These needs can manifest in many ways, for example as challenging, disruptive or disturbing behaviour, or by the pupil becoming withdrawn or isolated.
Sensory and/or physical	Pupils with these needs have a disability that hinders them from accessing the educational facilities generally provided. Pupils may have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A sensory impairment such as vision impairment, hearing impairment or multi-sensory impairment • A physical impairment These pupils may need ongoing additional support and equipment to access all the opportunities available to their peers.

6.6 Parents or carers

Parents or carers should inform the school if they have any concerns about their child's progress or development.

Parents or carers of a pupil on the SEND register will always be given the opportunity to provide information and express their views about the pupil's SEND and the support provided. They will be invited to participate in discussions and decisions about this support. They will be:

- › Invited to termly meetings to review the provision that is in place for their child
- › Asked to provide information about the impact of SEN support outside school and any changes in the pupil's needs

- Given the opportunity to share their concerns and, with school staff, agree their aspirations for the pupil
- Given an annual report on the pupil's progress

The school will take into account the views of the parent or carer in any decisions made about the pupil.

6.7 The pupil

Pupils will always be given the opportunity to provide information and express their views about their SEND and the support provided. They will be invited to participate in discussions and decisions about this support. This might involve the pupil:

- Explaining what their strengths and difficulties are
- Contributing to setting targets or outcomes
- Attending review meetings
- Giving feedback on the effectiveness of interventions

The pupil's views will be taken into account in making decisions that affect them, whenever possible.

7. SEN information report

Our school publishes a SEN information report on its website, which sets out how this policy is implemented in the school.

Our information report will be updated annually and as soon as possible after any changes to the information it contains.

8. Our approach to SEND support

8.1 Identifying pupils with SEND and assessing their needs

Early identification of pupils who may have SEND is essential. When teachers identify an area where a pupil is making slow progress, they will target the pupil's area of weakness with adapted, high-quality teaching. If progress does not improve, the teacher will raise the issue with the SENCO to have an initial discussion about whether this lack of progress may be due to a special educational need. Where necessary they will, in consultation with the pupil's parents or carers, consider consulting an external specialist. This should be followed up by the Class Teacher using the Gloucestershire Guidance Booklet. Concerns are to be supported by evidence and, where appropriate, reference to the Gloucestershire SEND guidance. Pupil tracking and assessment procedures may also be used as evidence to support concerns.

Class Teachers will regularly assess the progress of all pupils and will identify any pupils who:

- show signs of difficulty in developing Reading, Writing and/or Maths skills
- progress is significantly slower than that of their peers starting from the same baseline
- Fail to close the attainment gap between them and their peers
- has sensory and/or physical difficulties
- has communication and/or interaction difficulties
- presents social, emotional, behavioural or mental health needs
- has medical conditions then,

The SENCO will then carry out an overview of the child's progress using evidence of attainment in class work and formal standardised test results. This is in order to diagnose more precisely where the pupil's needs lie and therefore to plan for appropriate provision. Slow progress and low attainment will not automatically mean a pupil is recorded as having SEN.

The SENCO and the Class Teacher will agree on a course of intervention, initially producing a My Plan for the child in partnership with the parents. The SEN support takes the form of a four-part cycle (assess, plan, do, review). This is known as the graduated approach. Through this cycle, previous actions are revisited and refined; support provided through interventions to meet the individual's needs and review the effectiveness of the support and the impact on the child's progress. This can progress to a My Plan + where other agencies are involved and culminates in producing an individual EHCP where the needs are deemed sufficient for significant additional internal / external support. This procedure is set out in detail in the School Offer on the school's website.

Potential short-term causes of impact on behaviour or performance will be considered, such as bullying or bereavement. Staff will also take particular care in identifying and assessing SEN for pupils whose first language is not English.

When deciding whether the pupil needs special educational provision, we will start with the desired outcomes, including the expected progress and attainment, and the views and the wishes of the pupil and their parents. We will use this to determine the support that is needed and whether we can provide it by adapting our core offer, or whether something different or additional is needed.

If a pupil is joining the school, and:

- Their previous setting has already identified that they have SEN
- They are known to external agencies
- They have an education, health and care plan (EHCP)

then the school will work in a multi-agency way to make sure we get relevant information before the pupil starts at school, so support can be put in place as early as possible.

8.2 Consulting and involving pupils and parents

In accordance with the SEND Code of Practice, our school believes that all parents of children with SEND should be treated as equal partners. Our school has positive attitudes to parents, provides user-friendly information and strives to ensure that they understand the procedures and are aware of how to access advice. Parents will be supported and empowered to:

- Recognise and fulfil their responsibilities as parents and play an active and valued role in their child's education.
- Have knowledge of their child's entitlement within the SEND framework
- Make their views known about how their child is educated
- Have access to information, advice and support during assessment and any related decision making processes about special educational provision

Parents have the opportunity to discuss their child's progress at regular parents' evenings. We aim to ensure that, for parents of children with SEND, these meetings take place after a pupil progress meeting. Parent's views will be sought as to what type of support they feel would be best for their child. Parents are given ideas and resources to enable them to continue the support their child needs at home. Parents are always consulted first if any external support is being sought and permission must be given. When a child is initially placed on the SEND Code of Practice register, parents are made aware of a parent partnership service, SENDIASS Gloucestershire (Special Educational Needs and Disability Information, Advice and Support Service) and how it can support them.

Furthermore, these conversations will make sure that:

- Everyone develops a good understanding of the pupil's areas of strength and difficulty
- We take into account any concerns the parents have
- Everyone understands the agreed outcomes sought for the child
- Everyone is clear on what the next steps are

Notes of these early discussions will be added to the pupil's record and given to their parents.

We will formally notify parents if it is decided that a pupil will receive special educational provision.

8.3 The graduated approach to SEN support

Once a pupil has been identified as having SEN, we will take action to remove any barriers to learning, and put effective special educational provision in place. This support will be delivered through successive rounds of a 4-part cycle known as the graduated approach.

1. Assess

The pupil's class teacher and the SENCO will carry out a clear analysis of the pupil's needs. The views of the pupil and their parents will be taken into account. The school may also seek advice from external support services.

The assessment will be reviewed regularly to help make sure that the support in place is matched to the pupil's need. For many pupils, the most reliable way to identify needs is to observe the way they respond to an intervention.

2. Plan

In consultation with the parents and the pupil, the teacher and the SENCO will decide which adjustments, interventions and support will be put into place, the expected outcomes, and a clear date for review.

All staff who work with the pupil will be made aware of the pupil's needs, the outcomes sought, the support provided and any teaching strategies or approaches that are needed. This information will be recorded on our management information system, CPOMs, and will be made accessible to staff in a My Plan.

Parents will be fully aware of the planned support and interventions, and may be asked to reinforce or contribute to progress at home.

3. Do

The pupil's class or subject teacher retains overall responsibility for their progress.

Where the plan involves group or 1-to-1 teaching away from the main class or subject teacher, they still retain responsibility for the pupil. They will work closely with any teaching assistants or specialist staff involved, to plan and assess the impact of support and interventions and how they can be linked to classroom teaching.

The SENCO will support the teacher in further assessing the pupil's particular strengths and weaknesses, in problem solving and advising on how to implement support effectively.

4. Review

The effectiveness of the support and interventions and their impact on the pupil's progress will be reviewed in line with the agreed date.

We will evaluate the impact and quality of the support and interventions. This evaluation will be based on:

- The views of the parents and pupils
- The level of progress the pupil has made towards their outcomes
- The views of teaching staff who work with the pupil

The teacher and the SENCO will revise the outcomes and support in light of the pupil's progress and development, and in consultation with the pupil and their parents.

8.4 Levels of support

School-based SEN provision

Pupils receiving SEN provision will be placed on the school's SEND register. These pupils have needs that can be met by the school through the graduated approach. Where the pupil's needs cannot be adequately met with in-house expertise, staff will consider involving an external specialist as soon as possible.

The provision for these pupils is funded through the school's notional SEND budget.

On the census these pupils will be marked with the code K.

Education, health and care (EHC) plan

Pupils who need more support than is available through the school's school-based SEN provision may be entitled to an EHC plan. The plan is a legal document that describes the needs of the pupil, the provision that will be put in place, and the outcomes sought.

The provision for these pupils will be funded from the school's notional SEND budget, and potentially from the LA (from the high-level needs funding block of the dedicated schools grant).

On the census these pupils will be marked with the code E.

8.5 Evaluating the effectiveness of SEN provision

The school, including the governing body is committed to regular and systematic evaluation of the effectiveness of its work. In this respect, the governing body report annually to the parents upon the quality of education provided for and the achievements of pupils with SEND. The school employs a series of methods to gather data for analysis including:

- Tracking pupils' progress, including by using provision maps
- Analysis of the attainment and achievement of different groups of pupils with SEND
- Evaluating the success rates of interventions undertaken
- Carrying out the review stage of the graduated approach in every cycle of SEN support
- Using pupil questionnaires, listening to the pupil voice and conducting a scrutiny of their work
- Monitoring by the SENCO, including regular observations of teaching by the SENCO/Head Teacher
- Scrutiny of planning
- Holding annual reviews for pupils with EHC plans
- Getting feedback from the pupil and their parents
- Regular monitoring by the SEND governor

As a result of the above, the school reports annually upon its successes and identified aspects for further development.

9. Expertise and training of staff

Training will regularly be provided to teaching and support staff. The headteacher and the SENCO will continuously monitor to identify any staff who have specific training needs and will incorporate this into the school's plan for continuous professional development.

A variety of opportunities for SEN training is offered, including:

- SENCO attendance at local and national courses/conferences
- Externally accredited courses eg diplomas, certificates, degrees
- Training for TA's (delivered by the SENCO) and non-teaching staff
- In school CPD on areas such as writing assessment, monitoring targets, best use of TA's
- Arrangements for inducting new teachers (ECTs) and staff to the school
- Training opportunities are also in place, led by our Educational Psychologist, to further support the delivery of some interventions. For example, precision teaching.

10. Links with external professional agencies

St Joseph's recognises that it won't be able to meet all the needs of every pupil. Whenever necessary the school will work with external support services such as:

- Speech and language therapists
- Specialist teachers or support services
- Educational psychologists
- Occupational therapists, speech and language therapists or physiotherapists
- General practitioners or paediatricians
- School nurses
- Child and adolescent mental health services (CAMHS)
- Education welfare officers
- Social services
- Advisory Teaching Service
- Early Help
- Sight/Hearing specialists
- Environmental specialists

11. Admission and accessibility arrangements

11.1 Admission arrangements

The Head Teacher is responsible for the admission arrangements, which accord with those laid down by the local education authority. The school acknowledges in full its responsibility to admit pupils with already identified special educational needs, as well as identifying and providing for those not previously identified as having SEND. The admissions policy is available on the school's website.

Children with an Education, Health and Care Plan that names the school must be admitted. Where this takes place before the allocation of places under these arrangements, this will reduce the number of places available to other children.

As a Catholic School, oversubscription criteria give priority to Catholic children and Looked After and Previously Looked After children. The school is non-selective (apart from faith) and therefore does not unfairly disadvantage prospective pupils with a disability or special educational needs.

11.2 Accessibility arrangements

We support pupils with physical disabilities and provide additional resources to meet their needs. The school is committed to providing an environment that allows these children full access to all areas of learning. Some classrooms have been modified for wheelchair access and there are designated points of entry for the school, which also allow wheelchair access. (see specialised provision above)

Teachers modify teaching and learning as appropriate for these children. For example, they may give additional time to children with disabilities to complete certain activities or use modified resources. In their planning, teachers ensure that they give children with disabilities the opportunity to develop skills in practical aspects of the curriculum. These children are also highlighted on planning so that their individual needs are clearly planned for.

There is also a ramp provided for access to the main school building from the playground for any physically disabled pupil or visitor. Both entrances to the Leigh building and the school office provides level entry access.

Both the main school building and the Leigh building have disabled toilet facilities.

Dual height handrails are provided to assist any pupil or visitor who needs it to access the upstairs classrooms.

A shower is available in school.

You can find further information on our school website in our Accessibility Plan, under Policies.

12. Complaints about SEND provision

Concerns should initially be addressed to the Class Teacher. However, if this does not resolve their concerns, parents are welcome to submit their complaint formally.

Formal complaints about SEND provision in our school should be made to the SENCO (Mrs Natalie Guoite) and/or the Head Teacher (Mrs Clare Howells) in the first instance. They will be handled in line with the school's complaints policy.

If the parent or carer is not satisfied with the school's response, they can escalate the complaint. In some circumstances, this right also applies to the pupil themselves.

To see a full explanation of suitable avenues for complaint, see pages 246 and 247 of the SEN Code of Practice.

To find out about disagreement resolution and mediation services in our local area.

13. Monitoring and evaluation arrangements

13.1 Evaluating the effectiveness of the policy

We are constantly looking for ways to improve our SEND policy. We will do this by evaluating whether or not we are meeting our objectives set out in section 1.

We will evaluate how effective our SEND provision is with regards to:

- All staff's awareness of pupils with SEND at the start of the autumn term

- How early pupils are identified as having SEND
- Pupils' progress and attainment once they have been identified as having SEND
- Whether pupils with SEND feel safe, valued and included in the school community
- Comments and feedback from pupils and their parents

13.2 Monitoring the policy

This policy will be reviewed by Mrs Natalie Guoite every year. It will also be updated when any new legislation, requirements or changes in procedure occur during the year.

It will be approved by the full governing board.
