

As writers we will: Return to our work on Adventure stories, this time looking at those with a cliff-hanger. Use subordinate clauses and descriptive phrases in our writing. Begin to look at writing instructions to give directions to familiar places.	As Geographers we will: Conduct a variety of fieldwork tasks to improve our understanding of the environment. Be able to locate some European countries on a map. Study the human and physical geographic characteristics of Greece.	As mathematicians we will: Continue to learn to tell the time on an analogue clock. Begin to sequence events. Understand the meaning of AM and PM.
As Scientists we will: Plan and conduct a light experiment. Investigate how to conduct a fair test, working scientifically both as a group and as individuals. Present our data in different ways and begin to create a variety of graphical representations.	St Patrick's Class Summer 1 We are Scientists! 	As leaders of our faith we will: Focus on the appearance of Jesus to his disciples. Examine artistic interpretations of the road to Emmaus and create our own. Examine the Holy Trinity, and ask questions about the various representations of it.
To keep active we will: Develop our cricket skills. Develop our tennis skills and work towards playing matches against our peers. Focus on our sportsmanship skills. 	As linguists we will: Learn to say a variety of different fruits in French. Be able to say which fruits we do and do not like in French.	As citizens of our community we will: Look at how we are made in the image of God, and created to love both God and others around us, as well as be loved back. Focus on how we live in a community with others.